Dedication

Teacher, Counselor, Friend . . .

When selecting an individual to dedicate a yearbook, a symbol of the intrigue, the heartaches, the wonderment of one full year of school life, careful analysis, penetrative thinking, and soul-searching are expedient.

We sincerely feel that our selection epitomizes the criterion with which the dedication of this book was measured. Imparting and sharing on a personal basis his knowledge, this person was a vital and dynamic stimulant in the cultivation of the total student, in school and out, at work and play. So doing, he proved his great interest and abiding affection for the well-being of our class. Thus, he has earned a firm place in our hearts and minds.

It is with great pride and equal gratitude that we honor, by dedicating the 1963 HARBORIAN to our teacher, our counselor, our friend . . .

ACTIVITIES

"Younger Than Springtime"

Laurel Dalrymple, Linda Dragosavac, Peggy Eisert, Linda Jones, Lois McClure, and Bonnie Schickling were the attendants on the right side of the king and queen.

A lovely setting, a beautiful evening, and many happy couples made the 1962 Junior-Senior Prom one which will be remembered by all. As the attendants were escorted toward the throne, a feeling of ecstasy reigned while they waited for the tense moment when the king and queen would be crowned. The music began and Larry Hein and Roberta Moorhead highlighted "Younger Than Springtime" as the king and queen.

The sentimental strains of the tender ballad, "Younger Than Springtime," provided the theme for the coronation dance as the blissful Roberta Moorhead and her escort Larry Hein danced gracefully following the crowning.

Homecoming 1962

Six gleaming convertibles glided around the football field, each carrying a dewy-eyed, sparkling princess to a supreme moment in her life. This court consisted of the Misses Dragosavac, Larson, Stein, and Tatamura. Homecoming was a perfect beginning to a wonderful year.

The Queen

Thrills and cheers for the queen! Cheers and thrills for her court! On the evening of October 5, at Harb's annual Homecoming, the electric moment of expectancy was broken by a din of applause as Miss Shirley Berringer was pronounced 1962 Homecoming queen.

"SWEETER THAN HONEY"

"IT MUST BE GLUED ON"

"WONDER IF WE GET SECONDS"

"COME ON IT ONLY ROOT BEER"

National Honor Society

Of all school awards the most cherished was the election to the National Honor Society, an organization composed of the most outstanding students in the Junior and Senior class.

The purpose of the society was to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to promote qualities of leadership, to encourage high standards of character, and to recognize exceptional service to the school.

Congratulations to all members for a job well done!

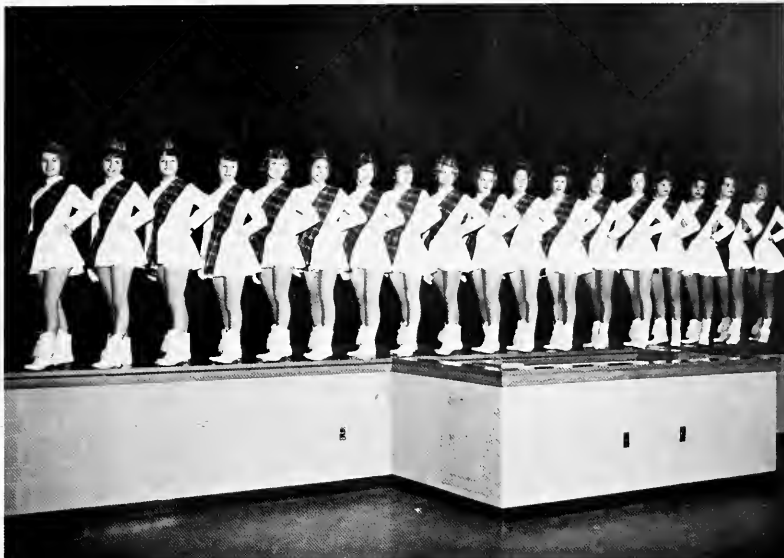

Our highstepping Junior Cadets made a good showing as they pranced onto the field each Friday night at halftime. Their performances proved that Judy Wetzel was a fine leader.

Junior Cadets

Twirling Club

Under the leadership of Sue Fitzgerald and Patsy Stein, the Senior Cadets gave us top performances during the football season. Their intricate routines required hours of strenuous practice.

Senior Cadets

The Junior and Senior Cadets put forth great effort all year. Their success would not have been possible without the fine supervision of Judy Wetzel, Patsy Stein, and Sue Fitzgerald.

Sheila Waite, although new, has added vitality to the leadership of her twirlers.

Twirlers

Harb's enthusiastic twirlers were a sight to behold. Under the able direction of Mrs. Helen Arnold, they performed their routines with the utmost skill and competency. The flashing batons and colorful costumes of the girls combined to delight all spectators at half-time. Long hours of drilling paid off in dividends of applause and praise for their entertaining exhibition of precision and beauty of performance. The twirlers did their share in making Harbor Creek the school it is, with the spirit it has.

The Senior Girls' Chorus sang their way through many assemblies this past year, including a Christmas program and a minstrel show. With Mr. Cerutti in the director's seat and Linda Holden assisting at the piano, they performed admirably.

Senior Chorus

Officers and Section Leaders

Officers were: President, Brenda Bryner; Vice-President, Sue Kennedy; Secretary-Treasurer, Pat Hoover.

Section Leaders included: Laurel Dalrymple, Linda Jones, and Darlene Soudan.

Senior Band

Every day during football season the members of the band could be seen earnestly striving to perfect their musical arrangements and marching routines. This diligent practice was well rewarded, for at each football game they presented a spectacle of marching maneuvers and vibrant marching beats to enthuse and entertain the crowd during half-time.

The concert season found them again in full swing. Under the masterful maestro, Mr. Albert Cerutti, they manifested their musical talent with supremacy.

Pam was an attractive attraction as drum majorette.

Pep Band

Even though this group was organized a short time ago, we often wondered what we would have done without them. These boys serenaded us at our assemblies and promoted school spirit at pep rallies and basketball games.

Mrs. Alexander, Director

Junior Chorus

This fine choral group could swell into song with the movement of a hand from their director, Mrs. Alexander. Diligent practice and capable direction brought them notable acclaim in the field of musical mastery.

Nancy Berringer, Accompanist

Junior Band

As rising musicians our Junior Bandsmen could perform with adroit ability. Diligent practice attained for them the highest goals in musical achievement. Their great success would not have been possible without the expert leadership of Mr. Cerutti.

Glee Club

Under the able supervision of Mrs. Alexander, this newly organized club advanced tremendously and proved itself to be a beneficial organization. The members united in song and fellowship.

German Club

Sprechen sie Deutsch?
Newly added to Harb's list of clubs was the German Club. Mr. Young, affluent in German, instructed members in the language and customs of that country.

International Club

Led by Mrs. Magee the International Club strove to promote a sense of international understanding and an interest of other nations. The club tried to promote a feeling of good will.

The Russian Club's aim was to promote better understanding of international ideas. By learning the language as well as customs of Russia, the club hoped to set an example for Harb's students to follow. The members diligently followed the direction of their advisor, Mr. Muzzi.

Russian Club

Russian Club officers included: Don Hammond, President; Donald Johnson, Vice-President; and Grace Kaczmarek, Secretary.

Chemistry Club

The lab sessions of this club directed by Mr. Peterson gave its members a deeper understanding of Chemistry.

Math Club

A new organization this year under Mr. Warthman, the Math Club attempted to develop skills in the math field.

These students, under the supervision of Mrs. Dalrymple, strove to keep our library in top working condition.

Library Club and Librarians

Reading Club

A realm of books was explored by Reading Club members. Under Mr. Rose the club exploited reading as a hobby.

“Save that coin! What is the date and mint mark?” We were often accosted with such familiar greetings and we knew them to belong to members of the Coin Club. Harb’s eager numismatists could be found wherever there was money exchanged.

Coin Club

Chess Club

Chess for the beginner or the pro was found available within the confines of the popular Chess Club. The club was created to allow students to learn as well as perfect the game.

Off the production line of this club came many sheet metal products, including CO₂ cars, a specialty of many members. Advisor Mr. Van Slyke made the Metalworking Club a popular new organization.

Metalworking Club

Promoting friendship and good will signified the task of the Junior Red Cross Club. Through their many projects they proved a help to others. Making holiday favors for hospitals was their main project during the year.

Red Cross Club

The goals of the Industrial Arts Club were expressed through craftsmanship. The club instilled enthusiasm for hobbies and furthered knowledge of wood crafts.

Industrial Arts Club

Automotive Club

The start of an engine was a familiar sound to the mechanically-minded men of the Automotive Club. Each club period found them happily engaged in dismantling and reassembling the finer parts of the automobile. The club was also helpful in promoting safe driving.

Patience with a projector plus a busy schedule characterized our movie-making men. By learning to handle the projection equipment they were able to answer the audiovisual needs of the classroom and auditorium.

Projection Club

The Varsity Club was made up of Senior lettermen, who upon entering and displaying high standards of conduct were eligible to receive their Harbor Creek jacket, symbolic of outstanding achievement in sports.

Varsity Club

The Outdoormen Club, directed by Mr. Dennis was comprised of students who loved the outdoors and the excitement of hunting and fishing. This club sponsored a series of activities which included an annual dance and turkey shoot.

Outdoormen Club

Future Teachers of America

Emanating from this club were many badly needed future teachers. The aim of the F. T. A. was to encourage high school students to enter the teaching profession. It sponsored many activities—after game pizza parties, bake sales, and car washes—for the purpose of raising money toward a scholarship for a deserving Harbor Creek student. Under the patient and capable guidance of Mr. Palloto, the club grew in experience as well as size.

Officers were: Iris Billig, Gail Gross, Linda Jones, Darlene Soudan, and Ann Stiger.

Junior Future Farmers of America

The Junior F. F. A. was organized to develop interest in the high ideals of the Senior F. F. A. and in agriculture generally. It was in this club that members learned skill and preparation necessary for modern farming. The president of the organization was Richard Bryant.

Senior Future Farmers of America

"Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve." The aim of the F. F. A. was development of agriculture, leadership, co-operation, and citizenship. Under the leadership of Mr. Ellwood and Skip Luce, the club was kept active and enthusiastic.

Senior Y-Teens

They danced, they sang, they were charitable! We mean the Senior Y-Teens. Miss Schuetz was their advisor and the officers were Darlene Soudan, Lois McClure, Patty Larson, Darlene Sieberkrob, Sue Harper, Pam Gest, and Nancy Dick.

The motto of the 9th Grade Y-Teens was to participate and co-operate with others. The girls worked and played together and learned to aid those less fortunate.

Junior Y-Teens

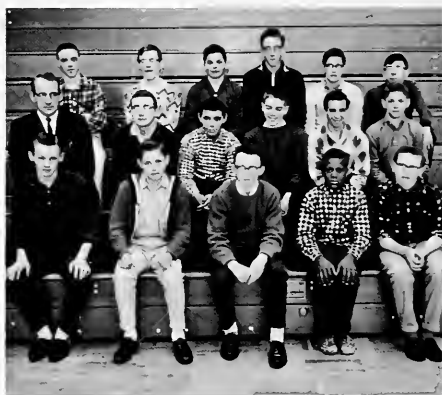

The 7th and 8th grade Y-Teens, whose purpose was to increase fellowship, strove to follow in the footsteps of their sister organization.

Junior Hi-Y

Future Senior Hi-Y members were given their start in these clubs. The Hi-Y brought the principles of the Y.M.C.A. into the school and advanced greatly under the supervision of Mr. Rice.

Senior Hi-Y

To create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character was the purpose of the Senior Hi-Y. Their advisor, Mr. Foust helped these boys to maintain clean sportsmanship and good citizenship.

The Future Homemakers of America Club has always had one purpose in mind; to help young women gain experience in homemaking. In this club the girls learned the techniques of cooking, sewing, and raising a family.

Future Homemakers of America

F.H.A. officers, guided by Mrs. Wolf, included: Carol Rhodes, President; Sue Hall, Vice-President; Nancy Morris, Secretary; Carol Curry, Treasurer; Ann Duda, Reporter; Dolores Ervin, Photographer; Marsha Talbot, Historian; Louise Peterson, Song Leader.

H. L. S. Club

For those girls particularly interested in gymnastics, the H. L. S. Club provided a period of relaxation and fun along with the opportunity for its members to perfect their skill in sports.

Electronics Club

The Electronics Club's goal was to further interest and knowledge in the field of electronics. Topics for discussion, led by their advisor Mr. Sherwood, included ham radios, radar, and computers.

Harb's branch chapter of the Junior Historians of America was composed of those students who were actively interested in learning more about our county, past and present.

Junior Historians

Eight Ball Club

The Eight Ball Club was a newly created club this past year under the supervision of Mr. Billings. It consisted of sixteen junior high boys and was organized on an experimental basis.

Senior Student Council

Junior Student Council

Leadership is the key word in the definition of a good Student Council. Our Student Council strove to provide Harb with facilities and programs for which the students indicated a desire. This year the Council operated a book store for student convenience, raised money for the American Field Service summer-abroad program, and kept a calendar of events in the cafeteria.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Arnold and Miss Schuetz, Co-editors Sheila Waite and Linda Keser amazed us in the way they managed the Harbor Headlines. The weekly issues of the school newspaper were awaited eagerly by students.

Harbor Headlines

Business Club

Better secretaries for the business world was the aim of the Business Club with advisement coming from Miss Nowak.

Harborian

The HARBORIAN Staff this year tried to produce a chronicle different from others and yet containing the same elements which go into any yearbook. It brings to life the activities and events of the school year and leaves memories of all the good times to be treasured through the years. We hope we have accomplished our goal in the 1963 HARBORIAN.

Dramatics Club

"All the world is but a stage . . ." Members of the Dramatics Club participated in all functions of the theater, from learning make-up techniques to acting. The main project of the club, under Mr. McCabe, was assistance given the Senior Play.

Officers were: Sharon Smith, President; Billie Sue Waterhouse, Vice-President; Pat Ocheltree, Treasurer; Gail Anderson, Secretary.

Senior Debate Club

Hard work, long research, and an enthusiastic mind made up the theme "Debaters Today, Leaders Tomorrow." Mr. Rose, the able advisor of the Debate Club, contributed much time and effort to the training of these young talented speakers.

Junior Debate Club

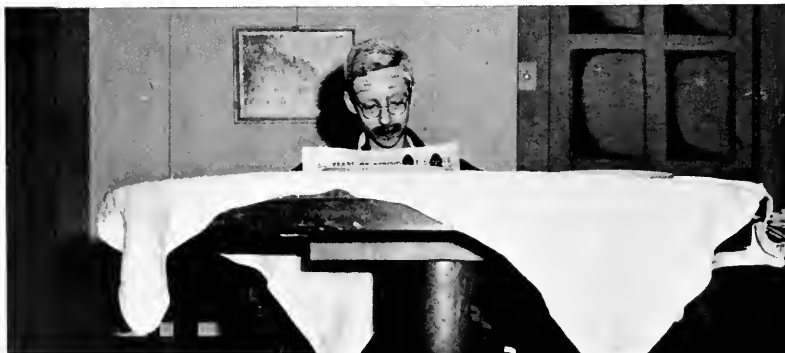

The Junior Debaters under the capable leadership of Mrs. Hulings practiced and improved their techniques, so that in the future they could take the place of Senior Debaters.

"You Can't Take It With You"

A rollicking comedy full of surprises was presented by the Senior class under the proficient direction of Mr. McCabe and Mr. Rhodes. Principal characters were excellently portrayed by John Nesgoda as Grandfather, an intelligent man who gave up working long ago; Judy Sieber, a lovestruck young miss, Alice Sycamore. Her fiancé, Tony Kirby was played by Mickey Eisert; her dancing sister, Essie, by Linda Jones and her artist mother by Sue Kennedy.

Ron Winders made a wonderful impression as Kolenchov as did Don Benson as Mr. Kirby. Other characters were Sue Krohe as Rheba; Glenn Gearhart as Mr. DePina; Walter Soder as Mr. Sycamore; Gary Hoover as Donald; Bob Imhof as Mr. Henderson; Bill Wood as Ed Carmichael; Sally Mowris as Mrs. Kirby; Sharon Smith as the Grand Duchess; Grant Shaffer as head G-man, and Carl Shartner as his assistant.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders

Although small in number the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were abundant in enthusiasm. These peppy girls traveled to and cheered at away games as well as at the junior high and J. V. home games.

Cheerleaders

Junior High Cheerleaders

Cheerful and eager for perfection the Junior High Cheerleaders consisted of 7th and 8th grade girls. Cheering at the junior high games, they supported our junior high basketballers with zeal and pep.

SING ALONG WITH BOSCOE

Minstrel Show

The first annual Harbor Creek Faculty Minstrel Show was a huge success both financially and as entertainment.

Featuring Interlocutor, Mr. Wood and Endmen Mr. Bannister, Hambone; Mr. Thomas, Shadow; Mr. Robasky, Chocolate Drop; Mr. Vrenna, Eight Ball; Mr. Rice, Tambo; and Mr. Foust, Snowball, the student-faculty chorus, the Flapperettes, the Chipmunks, Mr. Shunk as Miss Topsy and the superb band, the 1900 persons on hand for the two performances were hearty in their praise that the Minstrel, under the splendid tutelage of Mr. Cerutti, must become a regular event of the school year.

The benefits from the show were many. The audience had the opportunity to see teachers in a completely different light; the Endman dance and the Flapperettes certainly quieted those who thought teachers were supposed to be quiet, subdued individuals. The faculty benefited by the favorable publicity, but most important the students benefited. After expenses the Minstrel Show netted over $1500 to be put into a scholarship fund so a worthy Harbor Creek student might attend college.

In conclusion, the HARBORIAN staff wishes to congratulate the Harbor Creek Education Association for sponsoring the program, Mr. Cerutti for making it a reality, and all the faculty members and students who contributed so much of their time to make February 28 and March 1 truly the highlight of 1963.

Junior Varsity Football

The Junior Varsity Football team, whose goal was to become the varsity of the future, played with vigor but hope to be more successful next year.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The Junior Varsity Basketball team, under the proficient instruction of coach Robert Deniston, achieved an excellent 11-6 record. Dave Whitten and Ed Korwek led the J.V.'s in scoring, but every member of the team performed with utmost skill to make this record possible.

Senior Varsity Football

Sporting optimism and zeal the Varsity Football team surged into the 1962 season with nine seniors starting on offense. The team's power and punch was felt in the games as the Huskies emerged with the best record (4-3-1) in the Harbor Creek Class A history. Wins over Conneaut Valley, Strong Vincent, Hickory, and Meadville put real spirit into the boys. The Millcreek game was fought to a 13-13 deadlock, and the fighting Huskies lost only to Academy (Sec. 1 champs with East) by one point, East by one touchdown. The Tech loss was the only one in which the Huskies were really outshone.

This successful grid season was a tribute to the fine ability of Coach Dennis.

Harb's Huskies showed the best record in basketball since the 1951-52 season. Don Dougan, as top rebounder and scorer, broke 16 school records and tied one. Don set a Section 1 scoring record with 47 points against McDowell. Other seniors who aided in bringing Harb many victories were J. Dean and A. Landis. With the remaining varsity squad, D. Casane, B. Arpin, C. Hogue, R. Rocky, and J. Erven. Harb ended its season successfully with a record of 10-7. Don Dougan and Al Landis shared the spotlight as co-captains and F. Vivier, R. Sudwig, and D. Langer kept things in top order as managers.

Wrestling

Harb's Wrestling team, though only in existence for a short time, showed much spirit and enthusiasm. Although it suffered the loss of some of its star matmen, it gave Harb a reason to be proud. Under Coach Dennis, our boys participated in meets including an assembly for the senior high which everyone enjoyed immensely. It is certain that this sport will become one of Harb's most popular activities. We congratulate the wrestlers for their fine sportsmanship.

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Basketball team was organized three years ago and, under the capable supervision of Mrs. Watson, has shown skill and sportsmanship in all their games. This past year they won seven out of seven games. They showed dexterity when they thoroughly defeated the Hi-Y Club on Fun Night. There were thirty girls actively participating of which the following were seniors: S. Peters, F. Morrison, P. Eisert, L. Dragosavac, L. Connelly, B. Schickling, L. Keser, B. Guido, and D. Benigni.

SURE ARE

Track

Last year's Track team didn't have much to cheer about. They won two of eight meets. Leading members were Rob Seclar (1 mile, 880, and mile relay), Don Dougan (discus), Rich Welch (880), Jim Murphy (mile), and Dave Bissill (high jump).

This year's team was one having few veteran members. Rich Becker, Rich Welch, Don Dougan, and Quentin Boroï were mainstays. In a building year individual performance and improvement is stressed. The goal was to prepare and mold Harbor Creek Track into a winning team in the future. Coach Thomas and assistant Bannister were pleased with the attitude shown by the boys this year.

Baseball

The 1963 edition of the Baseball Huskies promised to be a bright one. The team was studded with numerous lettermen with all members of last year's squad returning except Rick Farel and Jack Johnson. Coach Foust banked on the strong right arms of George Hoover and Cliff Hogue who teamed up with the lusty hitting of Bob Irish, and Mike Lucas to give the Huskies a banner season.

The 1962 season was hi-lighted by successive victories over Erie County League champ, Fort Leboeuf, and a schedule ending triumph over Erie City title winner Memorial Tech.

Transportation

Neither rain nor snow nor gloom of Mondays kept these couriers from their duty of transporting us to and from Harb.

Besides keeping the school in tip-top shape, the maintenance men, Frank Spattifor, Robert Davies, George Pierce, John Tuttle, and Don Best, were always willing to assist both faculty and students.
